

Planting Wolves

A writer in a purgatory bar, an art collecting housewife who time travels, a movie Production Assistant with stigmata, a codependent AA sponsor, a sex addict, a movie star with issues, a two-time liver transplant recipient and an abusive TV costumer who gets what's coming to her.

All connected to one another but completely and utterly alone.

Neda Disney's first book will appeal to lovers of Bruce Wagner's I'm Losing You, Dennis Johnson's Jesus's Son, and Jerry Stahl's Permanent Midnight.
